

We Will Sing

You are called Wonderful, our Father, our Savior, Redeemer, Creator
You work all for Your good
All glory and honor shall be Yours forevermore, forevermore

We will sing of Your mercy and of Your worth
Of our sin and of the blood of Christ by which we are justified
Every tongue under heaven and on the earth
Will soon declare the glory of the Lord, glory of the Lord
We'll be waiting, so until then we will sing

None could stand before Your throne, lest you grant the faith to believe in the grace
Shown through Your only Son
A penance declaring Your children are forever Yours, forever Yours

We will sing of Your mercy and of Your worth
Of our sin and of the blood of Christ by which we are justified
Every tongue under heaven and on the earth
Will soon declare the glory of the Lord, glory of the Lord
We'll be waiting, so until then we will sing

Of Your love, of Your love
Of my love, of my love

I will sing of Your mercy and of Your worth
Of our sin and of the blood of Christ by which we are justified
Every tongue under heaven and on the earth
Will soon declare the glory of the Lord, glory of the Lord
We'll be waiting, so until then we will sing

Written by Corey Nolen
Copyright Corey Nolen

www.etherealband.com